

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

5.1. Conclusions

As one of the most common mistake that happened in daily conversation, the violation of cooperative principle became one of the most important things for people. Because of that, this analysis is done. Derived from the expertise explanation, cooperative principle was divided into four, namely quality, quantity, relation and manner. In Orphan Black TV series, the violation was happened mostly for the violation of maxim quality and relation. For the reason of violating the maxim, misleading the interlocutor becomes one of the most appearances.

5.2. Recommendations

This research is far from perfection, critics and suggestions are open in order to improve this research. But, there are recommendations from the researcher to whoever that would be the next researcher. It will be better if the next researcher started to combine the cooperative principle with other topic rather than continuing to put reasons behind the violation, because it was too basic and everybody seems to have it in the first place, so the future researcher need to come up with the new idea. Lastly, the researcher hopes that this research will be helpful for anyone who might read it.
