CHAPTER V
CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

This session discusses about the conclusion from this research and suggestion from this research to the reader.

5.1 Conclusion

From the analysis on this research, impoliteness strategies have been applied on CJ's comment columns are:

1. Positive impoliteness

2. Negative impoliteness

3. Bald on record

4. Mock politeness or sarcasm

5. Withhold politeness

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the conclusion before, the researcher divides the suggestion related to the parties.

1. Student of Linguistic

   a. This research can be as a reference related to the impoliteness strategy found in social media, which the new researcher can use this research as a previous research in their chapter two in the thesis.

   b. This research is not perfect yet may linguistics' students can devolve the research wider such as the object of the research or side strategy.

2. Reader from General

a. The suggestion this research for public is to make people more aware to watch every word which want to say and put the choice of word or language style must put in the right place because it can be made the interlocutor feel uncomfortable, angry or disappointed after hear the words which put in the wrong place.

b. It is a good idea to think of cause and effect in the future about the decision to be chosen.

c. There are always pros and contrasts in every decision, but think more wisely in making decisions let alone matters relating to the norms of life