

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

In this research, it goes from girls who live in simplicity and challenges but she and her family can rejoice and peace. In this research, the researcher analyzed the hierarchy of need of that the main character has and to describe the criteria of self-actualization of the main character. The theory used in conducting this research is the theory of Abraham H. Maslow or also better known as the Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs. Then, the data were collected by reading the novel and analyzed.

The data are deeply analyzed and summarized as found the hierarchy of needs that the main character has and to describe the criteria of self-actualization of the main character. In fulfilled her hierarchy of need and self-actualization Josephine have to has a big heart and obey to her mother advice because in her life she also get problem with her sister and the other people but because she always receive the advice she can be a good people enjoys her live even though in her simplicity life family.

As seen in the research analysis, it can be found that the main character, Josephine March is as the main character, her hierarchy of need is fulfilled and herself actualization also satisfied because the self-actualization not just talk about free from problem but how the people can receive their problem and keep feel life. For what she had done to make her family proud of her and she can be a writer.

However, she can enjoy her life in her simple family but she get enough love and happiness also she can have the truth, goodness, beauty, wholeness or the transcendence of dichotomies, aliveness or spontaneity, uniqueness, perfection, completion, justice and order, simplicity, richness or totality, effortlessness, playfulness or humor, and self-sufficiency or autonomy.

5.2 Suggestion

For this research, through a hierarchical analysis of needs and self-actualization met by the main character who has the simplicity of life and suggests that happiness not only talks about lots of money and has business success but can be achieved by how we are grateful for the things that happen in our lives, have love and peace in life.