

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter the researcher conclude the research analysis that had been discussed in the fourth chapter and the suggestion related to the significance of the research.

5.1 Conclusion

After conducting the data analysis of The Perfect Husband novel, the researcher concluded that the aspects of safety needs of needs of security and needs of freedom for anxiety were represented by the main character Tess, in The Perfect Husband novel by Lisa Gardner. In this novel there is the related between psychological phenomena and story plot especially on its conflict

1. In The Perfect Husband novel Tess did not have security/protection of life. She was threatened and physically abused by Jim Beckett. She was beaten, kicked and strangled by Jim Beckett.
2. Tess is always haunted by anxiety from her husband's presence until she is carried away by a dream. Tess not only was anxiety about herself, she was also worried about her daughter Samantha. She hid Samantha from Jim Beckett because she was afraid Samantha would be taken from her. Every time she slept she will jump when she heard small.

5.2 Suggestion

After conducting the conclusion, the researcher realize that this research is far from being perfect. The researcher would like to present some suggestion to the next student who will conduct the psychological analysis.

1. The researcher hopes that the next researcher will explore more deeply the literary approaches especially psychology to enrich knowledge about psychology that can be applied to the novel The Perfect Husband by Lisa Gardner. Furthermore, other researchers can also use the same theory of hierarchy of needs by Maslow with different objects or the next researchers can also use the same novel The Perfect Husband with a different approach to get new findings in the novel The Perfect Husband.
2. The researcher also hopes that this research can help students in learning the aspects of safety needs in The Perfect Husband novel, especially for students of the English language and literature faculty in Putera Batam University.
