

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

After the writer presented the data and analyze them in the previous chapter, the writer intends to draw the conclusion of the study. Additionally, he also owns several suggestions to offer that could beneficial for the readers or other writers.

5.1 CONCLUSION

In the novel the little prince, there are moral values that appears by the author can be seen easily by the writer. based on the analysis, the result reveal that are moral values in the little prince novel by are presented through tha action and the statment of tha characters. These moral values aare about the issues of bravely, enthusiasm, kindheart, honestly, love and affection, loyalty, perseverance, sacrificing for other, self- confidence and the last is strong belief. The moral values that presented in the novel can be used as a guide to live of life meaningfully. Just like between the narrtor and the little prince as the friend ,between the little prince and the rose about love, the best part is when the little prince tamed the fox there are love,friendship, kindheart. And the values found in the lives of the characters teach us to be a better human beings.

5.2 SUGGESTION

Based on the result and discussions of this research, there are some suggestion that the writer intends to convey :

1. For those who are interested in analyzing moral values the novel, they should search for many other novels that presented moral values
2. For the academics who read the finding of this study, the writer suggests them to instill the moral values adapted from the novel the little prince in their student's souls.