

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

In the previous study analyzed by (Susanti, 2012), her title is “An Analysis of Moral Values Taken From Edensor Novel by Andrea Hirata”. The result of her finding the literary elements that divided into five parts; those are character and characterization (major and minor character), plot (exposition, conflict, climax and resolution), setting (place and time), theme, and point of view. Moral values that found in the novel as never give up, nationalism, empathy to each other, strength of heart, optimism and thinking positively, believe in God, there is no reason to stop learning, struggle for life. In presenting the moral values the author uses explicit, implicit meaning and using imagination. The implication of moral education of the novel is that we can take moral values of the novel as education for us and takes them as guidance and improve our moral.

There is no same finding between this study and the previous study as the writers are using different kind of theory to analyze the thesis. The result of this thesis is the moral values found in The Secret Garden novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett which is Fundamental Moral Attitudes consists of Reverence, Faithfulness, Awareness of Responsibility, Veracity and Goodness and the moral messages found in The Secret Garden novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett.

In this research, the writer would like to conclude the graduating paper based on the discussion in the chapter four.

5.1.1 Moral Values Found in “The Secret Garden” novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The writer found that there are some moral values that contain in “The Secret Garden” novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett is the Fundamental Moral Attitudes such as Reverence, Faithfulness, Awareness of Responsibility, Veracity, and Goodness. Reverence in the story can be seen through the respect of the servants in the manor toward Mr Craven and Colin Craven as the master. Faithfulness in the story can be seen through the love of Mr Craven toward his wife. After his wife passed away 10 years ago, he didn’t remarry or attracted to another women. Awareness of responsibility can be seen through the servants are responsible about the job. Especially, when Ben Weatherstaff fulfilled his ordered that was given by Mrs Craven about taking care her garden 10 years ago. Veracity can be seen through people in the story are being honest to each other. And Goodness can be seen through people in the story are being nice and helping to each other to be better.

5.1.2 Moral Messages Found in “The Secret Garden” novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

The writer also found that there are some moral message that contain in “The Secret Garden” novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett such as, where there are love and happiness, there is a key to success, think less about yourself and more about the other people around you, the only way to have experiences is to allow yourself to leave your comfort zone, most of the time, our deepest fear comes from ourselves, there is nothing as beautiful as hope, and be who you are and say what you feel.

5.2 Suggestion

After reading this thesis, the writer hopes that it will help the readers to gain some knowledge and know the importance of moral values to our life. Everybody always can be better when we have moral. And, the writer also hopes that the next students who are going to do this kind of thesis can use this thesis as a reference to get some valuable information and adding other important sources that the writer didn't add into this thesis.