

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter will present the conclusion from research analysis and discussion in the fourth chapter. In addition the researcher has some suggestions. The researcher explains conclusion and suggestion as follows:

a. Conclusion

In this section, the researcher concludes that front office staff of Radisson Golf & Convention Center Batam often use code mixing as follows:

1. The most often type of code mixing used is intra-sentential. It occurs 41 times and the least often types of code mixing used is intra lexical. It occurs 15 times.
2. The highest reason of using code mixing by the front office staff of Radisson Golf & Convention Center Batam is talking about a particular topic. It occurs 40 times from 50 data.

b. Suggestion

In this opportunity, the researcher will also give some suggestion for the reader and the next researcher, as follows:

1. Please do not read this research only partially but read as a whole to get good a true understanding.
2. Please use good Indonesian language and good English to minimize miscommunication.
3. For the next researchers, especially research about code mixing use this research as a reference because It is very useful and this research is done without any manipulation data.