

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Swear words are word that used in certain situations, such as in informal situations. The use of swear words has a strong impact when the other person hear it. For example, when people want to express their feeling, people choose to utter swear words. This study aims to find out the types an the functions of swear words in the Death Race movie. In analyzing the types of swear words, the researcher uses theory from Pinker (2007). Then, in analyzing the functions of swear word the researcher uses theory Andersson and Hirsch (1985:53).

Based on the data analysis and finding, the researcher found four types of swear word that appear in the Death Race movie. There are idiomatically, abusively, emphatically, and cathartically. Then, the researcher found four functions of swear word that using by characters in Death Race movie. The functions are expletive, abusive, humoristic, euphemistic and habitual.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the conclusion above, the researcher want to give some suggestions to the reader who interested to conduct same topic in doing a research. First, the researcher suggests the next researcher can conduct field research in doing a research. Second, the researcher suggests to the next researcher, there are other theories that can apply in conducting swear word topic aside from Pinker (2007) and Andersson and Hirsch (1985:53). The last, the next researcher who interested in analyzing in same topic, there are other features that can be analyze such as reason and factors.