

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1. CONCLUSION

America's got talent is the televised American talent show competition that is famous among this day and is created by Simon Cowell, it is also part of the global Got Talent franchise among the world. This data were taken from week 1 to week 7 in 2019 uttered by 6 judges they are Simon Cowell, Howie Mandel, Julianne Hough, MEL B, Gabrielle Union, Heidi Klum. The data sources were collecting from the platform site www.youtube.com. There are many types of politeness that uttered by the judges.

The types of politeness strategies were found in “America’s Got Talent” Tv show. Four types of politeness strategies proposed by Brown and Levinson (1987) were found there are 6 data were found in bald on record, 14 data were found in positive politeness, 5 data were found in negative politeness and 5 data were found in off record.

The strategies of politeness strategies were found in “America’s Got Talent” Tv show. In bald on record the strategies were found 3 data of showing disagreement, give advice and suggestion were found 3 data. In positive politeness, was found 1 data of notice, and attend to hearer, 3 data of exaggerate, 1 data of intensify interest to hearer. 1 data of using in group identity, 1 data of seek agreement, 2 data of joking, 1 data include both speaker and hearer activity, 3 data of give and asking for reasons and 1 data of give gifts to hearer. In negative politeness was found 1 data of minimize the imposition and 3 data of give deference, 1 data of apologize. Off record was found 1 data of overstating, 3 data of use metaphor, and 1 data of use rhetorical question.

From the “America’s Got Talent” Tv show the judges used four types of politeness strategies. However, not all the strategies used by the judges to give comment to the contestant. The judges used politeness strategies when they want to give a comment to the contestant but do not want to be mean or being rude, sometimes another judge came to save the contestant’s feeling after being threaten by the other judges. Politeness strategies also used to minimize and avoid the rudeness to critic the contestant or interlocutor by saving the interlocutor’s or others feeling, be respected and feel more comfortable.

5.2. SUGGESTION

The researcher has a contribution of suggestion for people among this day to use politeness strategies in their daily conversation. It represents by people in real life and in the social situation. The aim of this study is to enhance the reader’s knowledge, so the result of the study could be easy to understand by the reader.

It really has a meaning if someone talking to other people with good words, good meaning, polite meaning, and minimize the misunderstanding between each other. More knowledge about politeness strategies could give more effective, more polite and more appropriate when talking to others.